BAITMORE, Scpt. 11, 1861.

Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray: I feel it a duty to make known the benefits I have derived from Dr. Hampton's Tincture. For a length of time I have been subject to great prostration of muscular power, and great debility of the nervous system, accompanied with palpitation and fluttering of the heart. I had such sudden attacks that on one occasion I could scarcely get home. I making mention of my case to a friend, he referred me to Joseph R. Stapleton, esq., an old and highly respectable citizen of Baltimore, who had used the Tincture under similar circumstances. I called on Mr. Stapleton, and, after an interview of some minutes, I was fully satisfied of the medical virtues of the Tincture, from the evidence before me, of his own person, who, for some time previous, indicated a failing state of health, but now a hearty, hale appearance, with the activity of youth. I immediately commenced using the Tincture, and, before I took the contents of one bottle, my strength was renewed, and I can walk as brisk and am as active as I was twenty years ago. This Tincture is the grand restoration of the directive of was renewed, and I can weak as brisk and am as active as I was twenty years ago. This Tincture is the grand restored tive of the digestive organs, which when destroyed, the whole system is in a state of suffering.

I do assert it is no humbug, but is, in reality, what it is represented to be by Dr. Hampton, the inventor.

A CLOUD OF WITNESSES.

We have certificates from Captain Canot, brother to the eminent physician to Louis Napoleon, President of the French republic, who was cured of Rheumatism of seven years' standing; one from Rob. Gault, do., of seven years, one from Mr. Oldham, Baltimore Custom-house, of a dreadful case of dyspepsia; one from Jno. Luke, of a case of dyspepsia and general debility; and one from J. K. Stapleton, esq., of Baltimore, with hundreds of others.

PORTSMOUTH, (Va.,) Aug. 18, 1851.

Mr. J. E. Boush—Dear Sir: Whie I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, dizziness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am, respectfully, yours, VERNON ESKRIDGE, Chaplain in the U. S. Navy.

Democratic National Convention BALTIMORE, June 4-10} a. m.

The 18th ballot resulted as follows: Cass, 96; Buchanan, 85; Douglas, 56; Marcy, 25; Butler, 1; Houston, 13; Dickinson 1.

The Chair here announced that he was author ized by the Kentucky delegation to say they intended to present fifty dollars to the National Washington Monument, and a similar sum to the Jackson Monument Association. This announcement was received with loud cheers.

Nineteenth. ballot.-Cass, 89; Buchanan, 85 Douglas, 63; Marcy, 26; Houston, 10; Lane, 13: Butler, 1; Dickinson, 1.

Second Despatch.

111 a. m.—The Rhode Island vote has changed for Douglas. A member of the Georgia delegation requested that they be entitled to two members on a committee to form a Democratic platform. The Convention refused to assent. The Chair requested that the several delegations would send to the secretaries the names of individuals appointed on the committee on the nomination for the Central Democratic Committee of the United States.

Mr. Reeder, of Pennsylvania, stated that he had come into possession of certain documentshe supposed by mistake-proposing to buy any quantity of pipe wanted; and as the Whig Convention is to meet on the 6th inst., for whom he supposed it was intended, he moved the appointment of a special committee to deliver them over to their charge and disposal.

Elias Brown, of Maryland, moved that Vir ginia be passed over, and allow a record of her vote hereafter, and that the Convention proceed to another ballot. The Convention refuse to do so. The Virginia delegation is still out.

[Third Despatch.] Twentieth ballot .- Cass, 81; Buchanan, 92; Douglas, 67; Marcy, 26; Lane, 13; Butler, 1 Allen, 10; Dickinson, 1; Houston, 9.

[Fourth Despatch.] Twenty-first ballot-Cass, 60; Buchanan, 102; Douglas, 64; Marcy, 26; Butler, 13; Houston, 9; Lane, 13; Dickinson, 1.

[Fifth Despatch.] 12 m .- When Maryland was called for the 22d ballot, she changed her vote. In every previous ballot she voted eight for Cass; this time five for

Cass and three for Buchanan. This aunouncement caused great disapprobation and hissing in the galleries. A member rose and asked to have the galleries cleared, and said the Democratic Convention should never again sit in Baltimore; the members were insulted

Mr. Kettlewell, chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, on the part of the Democracy of Baltimore, asked leave to be heard. 'He said there were persons in the galleries besides citizens of Baltimore. He closed by a strong appeal to the Democratic Baltimoreans to act like gentlemen, and bide the issue like men.

Messrs. White and Abercrombie, of Ala bama. These gentlemen possess the respect and confilence of the Whig party; and their joint letter, recently published, in which they indicate an unwillingness to go into the Whig nominating Convention, has been everywhere received with re-

When men whose practice it is, from selfish considerations, to menace and annoy the party in which they are unfortunately placed, adopt such a course as this, they awake some anger and but little regret. But Messrs. White and Abercrombie have rendered good service to the Whig party in darker hours than the present; and their sincerity and uprightness of purpose are questioned by none. Their presence in the party is earnestly desired, and their co-operation will produce the most salutary effects; while their withdrawal will by all be regarded "more in sorrow than in anger."

In reviewing their letter, the Mobile Daily Advertiser says:

"While agreeing in the main with the statement of facts set forth in this letter, and while freely according to its distinguished authors, the highest degree of sincerity and patriotism in determining the course they have thought proper to pursue, we are compelled to dissent from their conclusions. Messrs. Abercrombie and White are too good Whigs and too strong Union men, they have been too long and too well tried, to admit the thought, for a moment, that they were advising other than what they believed to be the pest interests of their Whig brethren of Alabama.

"But, say Messrs. Abercrombie and White, it is not certain that Mr. Fillmore would be the nominee if we go into the Convention; and they loubt the propriety of commingling with Abolitionists in order to select a candidate for the Presidency. With due deference to those gentlenen, we have to remark, upon the first point, that neither is it certain that a planter will reap the harvest he has sown. To require certainty of result before proceeding to action, in the ordinary affairs of life, would be regarded as an indication of weakness or insanity. But of one thing we may be certain: if we do not go into Convention, he will not be selected. We may succeed; but if we fail, we will be in no worse position than before. We shall have shown to our Northern brethren that, whatever else they may be, Southern Whigs are not ungrateful.

"With regard to commingling with Abolition-ists in Convention to nominate a Presidential candidate, we remark that we meet them as Whigs, not as Abolitionists. If we can, by the aid of sound Whigs at the North, preserve the national character of the Whig party, we need give ourselves little concern about what peculiar riews, antagonistical to ours though they be, may be privately entertained by the minority. So long as they can be controlled they may aid us, while they cannot do us injury. "We hope that its authors may be induced to

Well done, good old Norfolk-good old Virginia. She is fast becoming truly Democratic, and then she will be Whig of course; for it is the Whig party that rightly comprehends and maintains the RIGHTS OF THE PEOPLE.
